

Pastor(s),

This groundbreaking research we did at a Christian college can be depressing. As a shepherd of a flock, does this bother you? People don't read their Bible because . . . well, they don't read anything. Sure, they open Bible apps during Sunday morning services, but does that extend to their personal lives? Check out this article to see the real state of biblical literacy and ways you can help.

In Christ,

Dr. Andrew J. Fabich (microbiologist) and Jordan L. Turner (doctoral student)