with Johnny and His Dad

Dad, you sure do know a lot! You can teach me just about anything!

Well, I can't teach you everything. But there is a book that can.

What book is that, Dad?

The Bible. It is a great instruction book. It tells us how to honor and obey God.

For Parents

In His second letter to Timothy, Paul stated, “All Scripture is given by inspiration of God” (2 Timothy 3:16–17). The Bible is the inspired (“breathed out”) Word of God, transmitted not by the will of man, but through holy men of God as they were directed by the Holy Spirit (2 Peter 1:20–21). These men, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, wrote all that God instructed without error. It is the only inerrant, infallible Word of God and we can trust it to guide us in all things.

How does it guide us? Paul tells us that it is useful for doctrine—showing us the right path and right teachings for our life; reproof—showing us when we get off the path; correction—showing us how to get back on the right path; and instruction in righteousness—teaching us how to stay on the right path (2 Timothy 3:16–17). These are the general guidelines—they are expounded on again and again throughout the Bible.

Most importantly, the Word of God is living and active (Hebrews 4:12), given to us by God Himself—to teach us the principles of our faith, to reveal our sin, to show us how to deal with sin, to instruct us how to live in a manner that pleases Him, and ultimately, to reveal to us how we can be redeemed into everlasting life through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ—the lamb slain before the foundation of the world (Revelation 13:8).

OutWord↻ For Family Discussion

Suppose a friend ask you, “The Bible doesn’t tell me who my friends should be, does it?”

How would you answer her?

Well, the Bible won’t tell you whether Sally or Heidi should be your friend, but it does give us principles for making decisions in life. God’s Word tells us that the people we spend time with will influence us, so we should choose people who love God and His Word to be our close friends. But we should tell everyone about Jesus!

inWord↻ For Family Study

As parents, you have the blessing and responsibility to declare to your children that God’s “kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and His dominion is from generation to generation” (Daniel 4:3). Study and memorize His Word together—what a legacy to leave!
