But it wasn't long before the Lord called on Paul again to make a second journey and preach the gospel to more people in more cities. Paul invited Barnabas to join him, but due to a disagreement, they parted company. So, Paul chose Silas to go with him on this second missionary journey.

Paul's Journey to Rome

Lesson Summary

Paul completed three long, arduous missionary journeys. He was steadfast in his commitment to the Lord and the gospel throughout his three journeys. In spite of being run out of town, persecuted, imprisoned, stoned, left for dead, and beaten, he persevered. Nothing mattered to him but that he would finish his race with joy and continue in the ministry of the Lord Jesus to testify to the gospel (Acts 20:24).

But God was not finished with Paul. God sent Paul on one more journey, this time as a prisoner to Rome. We are going to read about Paul's long, dangerous journey, and see how God was with him throughout. We'll pick up in Acts 24, where Paul is in Caesarea before Felix the governor. He had been arrested in Jerusalem and accused by the Jewish leaders of creating dissension and profaning the temple.

Encouraging the Churches

Lesson Summary

God used Paul as he traveled on four different journeys. Paul preached the gospel and planted churches wherever he went. And Paul kept these churches in his heart whether he was with them or not. He felt responsible for them, like a father for his children (1 Corinthians 4:14; 1 Thessalonians 2:11). The epistles Paul wrote to them were his way of encouraging, teaching, correcting, and staying in touch with those whom he loved.

This week we'll look at some passages in Paul's letters that show his concern for the churches and that give us a glimpse into the heart of this great evangelist and church planter.

Read and Discuss

Read the following passages and discuss what they reveal about the heart of the Apostle Paul for Jesus's church.

- Romans 1:8–15 –
- Philippians 1:1–11 –
- 1 Corinthians 1:1–17 –

6 Revealing the Unknown God

Lesson Summary

This week, the younger grades had a review lesson. The older students watched a video and discussed the idea of making sure we are sharing the gospel in a way that is understandable to our audience.

In a culture that is increasingly unfamiliar with what the Bible teaches and accepting of an evolutionary worldview, Christians must take care to communicate the gospel in a way that is understandable to those who will listen. When Peter spoke to a Jewish audience in Acts 2, he didn't need to explain who God was since he had a common foundation with his hearers. Paul, however, when preaching to Greeks in Acts 17, had to take time to explain who God is. In a similar manner, we need to know whether we are speaking to "Jews" or "Greeks" as we share the gospel.

This week we'll look at these two sermons and see how the approach of Peter and Paul differed based on their audiences.

Read and Discuss

Read the following passages and discuss the questions together.

Acts 2:5–41

1. Who was in Jerusalem for this Pentecost celebration (v. 5)?
What would Peter have had in common with his audience?
2. Where did Peter quote from to explain what was happening (vv. 14–21)?
3. Were these Jews familiar with the ministry of Jesus (v. 22)?
4. What facts did Peter present concerning Jesus?
5. What did Peter quote from to show that the Old Testament spoke of the Resurrection of the Messiah?
6. What was the response of the crowd to Peter's sermon? What did Peter tell them to do?

7. What did Paul see in Athens that provoked his spirit?

8. What did Paul do daily in Athens? What was his message?

9. Who asked Paul to speak to them (vv. 18–19)? What would Paul have had in common with his audience?

10. How did Paul connect with the culture of the Athenians? (See vv. 22–23 and 28.)

11. What information did Paul share about God?

12. How did Paul finish his sermon? What was the response of the crowd?

13. How would you summarize the differences between the evangelistic approach of Peter and Paul in these two examples?

Saved by Grace

Lesson Summary

What a tremendous truth—we are saved by God’s grace through faith; it does not depend on our own good works or righteous deeds! If it did, none of us would ever be saved from God’s punishment.

But Jesus came as a man to take the punishment for sinners—to die as a substitute, taking upon Himself mankind’s sin and giving His righteousness to those who believe in Him. And now, we respond to such a great salvation through living lives that are worthy of Christ, performing good works that bring Him honor and glory.

This week we will read a number of Scriptures to see what they say about salvation, faith, and works.

Read and Discuss

Read the following passages and discuss what they teach us about the relationship between faith and works.

Children of God

Lesson Summary

This week in our lesson we looked at what it means that we are children of God—adopted by Him into His family. What a privilege we have as believers to call God Abba, Father. And with our adoption as God’s children comes certain responsibilities. We are to live in such a way as to bring glory to our Father (Matthew 5:16). And, as brothers and sisters with other believers, we are to treat one another with love and honor.

This week we are going to examine more fully those passages that speak of our adoptions as God’s children and how we are to live as a result.

Read the following passages and discuss what they tell us about the privileges and responsibilities of being God's adopted children.

Becoming Like Jesus

Lesson Summary

Jesus simplified obedience to God by focusing on two things—loving God and loving others (Matthew 22:37–40). He referred back to commands that God had given the Israelites; these are not new concepts but the standard God has always had for His children. As believers in Christ, partakers of the New Covenant, we have the Holy Spirit to help us to love God and to love others. We do not battle our flesh and the world on our own. We have the power of God in us to live lives that are pleasing to Him.

One way God helps His children be victorious in the Christian life is by giving them His armor—the armor of God (Ephesians 6:10–17). This armor is really nothing more than Jesus Himself and the Word of God. When we “put on the Lord Jesus Christ” (Romans 13:14), we’ll be able to say “no” to sin, stand firm in our faith against the devil’s attacks, and live lives pleasing to God.

This week we’ll look at what the Bible has to say about our sanctification—the process by which God makes us more like Jesus.

Read and Discuss

Read the following passages and discuss what they tell us about our sanctification.

- John 17:17–19 –

- 1 Thessalonians 4:1–8 –

- 1 Thessalonians 5:23–24 –

- Romans 6:1–23 –

Jesus Will Return

Lesson Summary

Perhaps no other area of theology has caused more debate—and more confusion—than eschatology, the study of last things, or end times. There are many different opinions on the details of how God will end history as we know it. When will Jesus return? What about the “tribulation” period? Who is the Antichrist? Will there be an earthly millennial kingdom, or are we currently in the millennium? What role will the nation of Israel play in the future? Will the church suffer tribulation and persecution or be delivered by the rapture?

We can’t answer all these questions in one lesson. And just as people were surprised and confused about the details of the first coming of the Messiah, we will, no doubt, be surprised at how the Second Coming unfolds, no matter our theological position. But, we must hold to the Scriptures as our final authority. Let us not be swayed by the opinions of man but let His Word be our guide.

This week we’ll look at four primary passages that shed light on the return of Christ. So, get your Bibles, and pray that God gives you insight into His Word.

Read and Discuss

Read the following passages and discuss the questions together.

Matthew 24:1–14

New Heaven and New Earth

Lesson Summary

What a glorious future believers have awaiting them! God has promised in His Word that believers can look forward to a time when there will be a new heaven and a new earth with no more sin. It will be a place where they will enjoy eternity with the one true and glorious God.

Eternal life is not some fuzzy ethereal experience or sitting on clouds strumming harps. It is serving our God and experiencing His presence forever and ever. We will get to worship and serve God in our glorified bodies with no sinful distractions.

This earth, which is corrupted and stained by sin and the Curse, will be purged with fire only to be recreated into a paradise where we will spend an eternity with God. While in this life we fight against our own sinful flesh and the physical and emotional pain we experience, we eagerly long for the hope of eternal life with God, experiencing Him in all of His glory.

Let's look at Peter's description of the new heaven and new earth and at the last couple chapters of the book of Revelation to see the glorious future God has for His children.

Review

Lesson Summary

This week is a review week. We have covered so much this past quarter! We looked at the ministry of the Apostle Paul and all he suffered to spread the good news of the gospel. We looked at Paul's heart for the churches, and how he encouraged and taught them in his epistles. And we considered our blessed hope—the return of Christ!

This week we will look at Romans 8—undoubtedly one of the Apostle Paul's most important, and glorious, chapters.

Read and Discuss

Read the following passages and write your observations and reflections in the spaces below.

Romans 8:1–17

1. What is true for those who are “in Christ Jesus”?

2. What’s the difference between walking according to the Spirit and walking according to the flesh?

3. What is true for those who are sons of God?

Romans 8:18–39

4. What is true about the present creation?

5. What hope do God’s children have for the future?

6. How does God's Spirit help us?

7. Explain the hope that verses 28–30 bring to the believer.

8. Is God for us or against us? What does that mean?

9. In light of all Christ has done, and continues to do for us, what should be our attitude toward tribulation and peril?

10. Can anything separate us from God's love?
