The Grace Relations Track Assessment Tool (Copyrighted)

A. Charles Ware

Personal assessment completed by ___ me, ___ counselor, ___ other. If you check "other," please identify your relationship with the person you are assessing _____. Name of the person being assessed _____ (if required)

How would you rate yourself on each of the following statements? Please circle the number that best describes your present status in each step of the Assessment Track listed below: (1) excellent, (3) satisfactorily and (5) poorly. Note definitions in chapter 8.

Faith — The grace dream inspired by the biblical teaching that God has made Christians one in Christ and that being a child of God takes precedence over one's particular racial heritage or background.

(1) (2) (3) (4) (5)

Virtue — As Christians, we must commit our lives to God with a willingness to manifest the truth of the Scripture concerning our (different races) relationship in Christ. There needs to be a passion to live as a family in Christ.

(1) (2) (3) (4) (5)

Knowledge — Admitting our confusion on how to build proper relationships, we must seek knowledge. We must study the Scriptures on this subject. We must begin to discuss the issues with one another and seek wise counsel.

(1) (2) (3) (4) (5)

Temperance — Once certain principles and practices become clear, we need the self-discipline to obey those things that will help to build grace relationships.

(1) (2) (3) (4) (5)

Patience — We must understand that good, healthy, loving grace relationships will not flourish overnight. We need to patiently continue doing that which we know to be right.

(1) (2) (3) (4) (5)

Godliness — When one begins to see the fruit of obedience, he begins to worship God because of His worth. There are testimonies/models established as to how God has worked in grace relationships because of obedience to His Word.

(1) (2) (3) (4) (5)

Brotherly Kindness — Grace relations groups develop more of a sense of togetherness because of common goals and rejoicing together in victories and weeping together in defeats.

(1) (2) (3) (4) (5)

Love — God’s love becomes the motivating factor of our lives. This will enable us to reach out to all, including people we dislike or who have deeply hurt us, seeking nothing in return.
