

ADVENTURES IN THE WILD WEST

The western United States is a great place to explore God's amazing creation. Without telling what this story is about, ask a friend or family member for words to fill in the blanks. Then read it back to them. What kind of Wild West vacation will they go on?

For our _____
(season) vacation, my family and I are traveling out West. I packed my _____ (noun), _____
(type of clothing), and _____
(noun) so I would be ready for anything.

After a(n) _____
(adjective) _____
(number)-hour ride by _____
(type of transportation), we made it to the _____
(dwelling place) where we would stay. We _____
(adverb) unpacked and ate _____
(food) and _____
(food) for _____
(meal of the day). Then it was time to ride _____
(animal, plural).

My _____
(same animal) was named _____
(name). It was _____
(adjective) and _____
(adjective). I was having a _____
(adjective) time riding when suddenly a(n) _____
(noun) storm blew in. Tumbleweeds _____
(past-tense verb) through the _____ (noun). Thankfully, I had remembered to bring my _____

(type of clothing) to keep dust out of my _____
(body part). We _____
(adverb) _____
(past tense verb) to a(n) _____
(place) to get _____
(preposition) the storm.

The first day of our trip was very _____ (adjective). Tomorrow, we will _____
(verb) for gold and _____
(verb) in the mountains. What a _____
(adjective) trip!
