

SATELLITE COORDINATES: Ken Ham's 'State of the Nation' Address Available via Satellite on Tuesday, Feb. 16

PETERSBURG, Ky., Feb. 11, 2010 – Biblical apologist Ken Ham, founder of the world-renowned Creation Museum, will offer his “State of the Nation” speech next week. Ham will highlight how far the U.S. has wandered from its moral foundations and will call Christians back to their biblical roots.

Ham will present his speech from inside the Creation Museum live at 8 p.m. EST, Tuesday, Feb. 16.

Ham's address will be available live via satellite for programming and news reporting purposes.

SCHEDULE:

- 1500-1515 EST Test Satellite Truck Color Bars
- 1930-1945 EST Test Satellite Truck Color Bars
- 1945-2000 EST Control Room Feed begins
- 2000-2100 EST “State of the Nation” Address

SATELLITE:

AMC16 (85 degrees west) - TX14 Slot B9

Uplink frequency = 14275.500 Vertical

Downlink frequency = 11975.500 Horizontal

Allocated Bandwidth = 9MHz KU Digital Band

FEC = QPSK $\frac{3}{4}$

Data Rate = 8.447974 Msps

Symbol Rate = 6.1113

ENGINEERING:

Central Satellite Services
Jim Timmerman
6851 Steger Dr.
Cincinnati, OH 45237
Phone: 513.821.7200 (24/7)
Fax: 513.821.7900
Email: jim@centralsat.com
Web: www.centralsat.com

TROUBLE #: Duane Prince, c. 859.380.3638

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- Closed Captioning is not provided.
- This feed is digital, but not encrypted.
- The feed will contain lower-third name keys and the Answers in Genesis logo. There will be no station or network identifiers.
- Broadcast usage rights are granted for airing of the live feed and news coverage purposes only. Any tape-delay or re-broadcast must be individually requested and approved by Melany Ethridge, A. Larry Ross Communications, 972.267.1111 / 214.912.8934.

For More Information:

Melany Ethridge, 972.267.1111, ext. 204 / melany@alarryross.com

Dan Parker, 972.267.1111, ext. 206 / dan@alarryross.com

– 30 –

more information is available in our online newsroom:

www.CreationMusuemNews.com