

WEEK 5

Wise Tongues

Read Proverbs 6 this week.

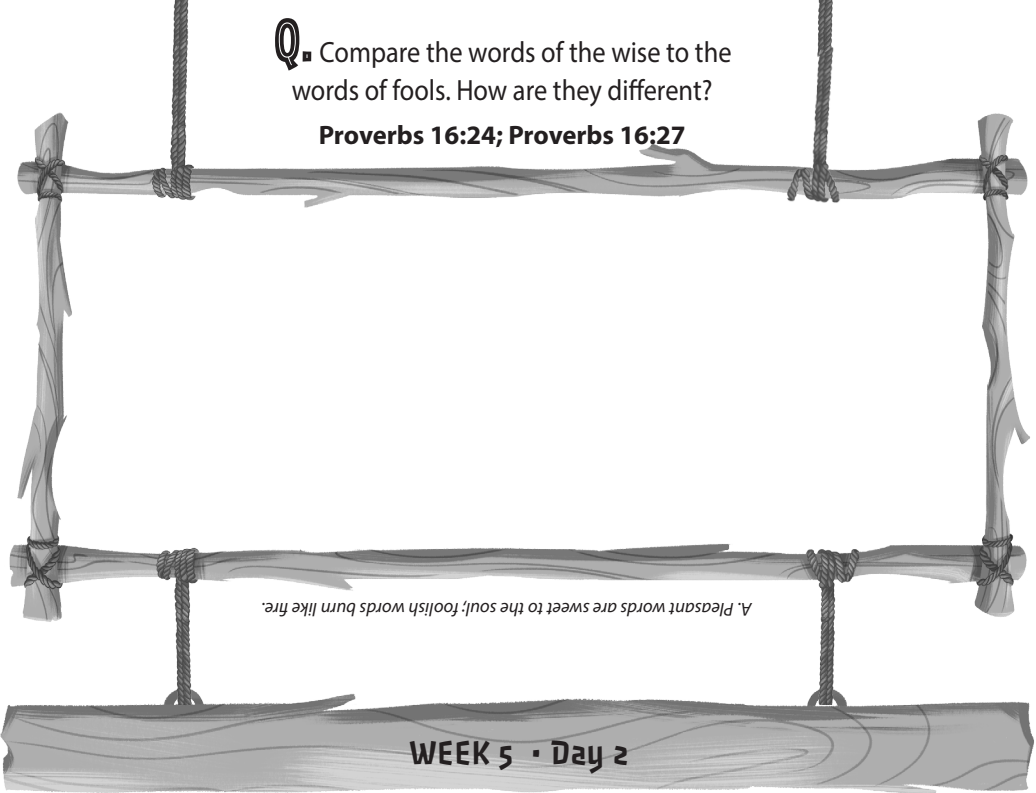

A wooden signpost made of four horizontal logs, held together by ropes. The top log is the widest and contains the text. The other three logs are narrower and form a rectangular frame. The ropes are tied in knots at the corners and midpoints.

WEEK 5 • Day 1

Q. How does a wise person use his tongue?

Proverbs 15:2

A. The tongue of the wise uses knowledge in the right way.

Q Compare the words of the wise to the words of fools. How are they different?

Proverbs 16:24; Proverbs 16:27

A. Pleasant words are sweet to the soul; foolish words burn like fire.

WEEK 5 • Day 2

WEEK 5 • Day 3

Q ■ What kind of tongue does the Lord hate?

Proverbs 6:16–19

A. A lying tongue

Q Which is worth more—the tongue of the wise or the heart of the foolish?

Proverbs 10:20

A. The tongue of the wise is choice silver; the wicked heart is worth little.

WEEK 5 • Day 4

WEEK 5 · Day 5

Q. When we make fun of other people, who are we really making fun of?

Proverbs 17:5

A. Their Maker—God.