

Pesky

Pesky the woolly aphid is an enemy to plants. Pesky reminds us that when we are surrounded by enemies (worry, fear, sadness), we can know that God is always good to us. We can be thankful for who God is and what he's done for us rather than grumbling about our circumstances. Do you grumble or are you grateful?