

When Dragons' Hearts Were Good

Arranged by Gary Lizzi

Words & Music by Buddy Davis

1. Once there were two dra - gons — who lived in the woods...

in a gar - den that God cre - a - ted where ev - 'ry - thing was good. Did the dra - gons breathe fire in the night, to light A - dam and his path? I won - der if they played in the morn - ing mist as A - dam and Eve laughed.

Chorus

G Am D

That was be - fore A-dam sinned. _____ The earth was

G

per-fect, way back then. _____ I'd re-store the gar-den if I could, _____ when e-ven dra-gons' hearts were good. _____

Am D G

Am D G (2nd time, to verse 3)

C D G C D G

2. The dra-gons were not vi-cious, _____ ev-ry-thing was nice. _____ The dra-gons ne-ver roared, they were al - ways gen-tle in the Mas-ter's par - a - dise.

C G D

Am G Am G

All the an - i-mals lived on plants, no-thing could ev-er die. Did

C D G D D7 to Chorus

A - dam ride on a dra-gon's back? Did they fly?

C D G C D G

3. God walked in the gar-den with His two spec - ial friends.

C G D

All the a - ni-mals A-dam had named, well they loved to fol-low them. The

Am G Am G

dra-gons laid their heads on A-dam's lap, Eve smiled at them too, in a

C D G D D7

land be - fore the rain - bow, — be-fore tears were true. —

G Am D

That was be - fore A-dam sinned. — The earth was

G Am

per-fect way back then. — But God will re - store the earth some day. —

D G

Child-ren will laugh with dra-gons as they play. —