

HOUSE OF THE INTERPRETER, PICTURE ON THE WALL, PARLOR OF DUST TRUTHS TO PONDER

1. Christian saw a picture of a very grave person in the house of the Interpreter. On the sketch below, add at least five details that are described in the text.

2. The Interpreter gave Christian a good explanation about the details of the picture.
  - a. What do the eyes lifted to Heaven, the book in his hand and the truth on his lips show us?

---

---

---

HOUSE OF THE INTERPRETER, PICTURE ON THE WALL, PARLOR OF DUST TRUTHS TO PONDER

- b. What do the world behind him and the crown over his head show us?

---

---

---

3. Why did the Interpreter show this picture to Christian first?

---

---

---

4. The dusty parlor that Christian entered is full of symbols. Print the correct letter on the blank line to show what these symbols mean.

_____ water	A. original sin
_____ parlor	B. the gospel
_____ dust	C. the Law
_____ sweeper	D. the heart

5. Add the missing words to the following verses that tell a wonderful truth about how our souls are made clean.

“You are already _____ because of the _____ which I have spoken to you” (John 15:3, NKJV).

“So God, who knows the _____, acknowledged them by giving them the Holy _____, just as He did to _____, and made no distinction between us and them, _____ their hearts by _____” (Acts 15:8–9, NKJV).

“Christ also loved the _____, and gave Himself for her, that He might _____ and _____ her with the washing of _____ by the _____” (Ephesians 5:25b–26, NKJV).