8. Draw lines to match the contrasting ideas of Christian and By-ends.

His duty to rush his journey in all weather

Takes all opportunities to secure life and estate

Will hazard all for God "at a clap"

Supports religion when he walks in silver slippers, in the sunshine, with applause

Will hold to notions though all be against

Waits for wind and tide

Supports religion when in rags and contempt

Supports religion so far as times and safety bear it
