

God's Word Is Our Foundation

1

Key Themes

- God's Word is the foundation for our lives.
- God's Word is the standard we use to judge every thought.

Key Passage

- Psalm 19:7–11

Objectives

Students will be able to:

- Identify the Bible as the starting point from which we make decisions.
- List qualities of God's Word.

Lesson Overview

Come On In

page 5

Students will prepare for Bible study by looking up and reading Psalm 19:7–11.

Studying God's Word

The Bible is perfect and true, the completely trustworthy starting point for understanding the world. Though our own viewpoint is distorted, the Bible gives us wisdom.

Activity 1: Psalm 19 Study Review

page 9

Students review the lesson as they work with mini-posters that were used in Bible study and practice arranging them beneath their proper headings.

Activity 2: God's Word Is True

page 9

Students will learn a rhythmic poem called "God's Word Is True." The poem reinforces belief in the truth of God's Word.

Lesson Preparation

WHAT YOU WILL DO

WHAT YOU WILL NEED

Come On In – 5 minutes

- ☐ Cut strips of paper for each student to mark Psalm 19 in their Bibles.

- ☐ Strips of paper for each student

Studying God's Word – 30 minutes

- ☐ Study the Prepare to Share section.
- ☐ Go Before the Throne.
- ☐ Print one set of Psalm 19 mini-poster teaching aids for the wall from the Resource DVD-ROM.
- ☐ Print one set of the Quarter Overview display material from the Resource DVD-ROM.
- ☐ Print one Psalm 19 Scripture sheet from the Resource DVD-ROM for each student.

- ☐ Student Take Home Sheets
- ☐ Psalm 19 mini-poster teaching aids for wall display
- ☐ Quarter Overview display material
- ☐ Psalm 19 Scripture sheet for each student
- ☐ Poster putty

Psalm 19 Study Review – 15 minutes

- ☐ You will use the Psalm 19 mini-poster teaching aids mentioned above for this activity. (Keep these on hand for the Come On In activity in Lesson 2.)

- ☐ Psalm 19 mini-poster teaching aids
- ☐ Poster putty

God's Word Is True – 10 minutes

- ☐ Practice saying the poem so you know it well enough to lead it with enthusiasm.

Memory Verse

Psalm 19:7–9 The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul;
the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple;
the statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes;
the fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever;
the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

SCRIPTURAL BACKGROUND

In order to best prepare your heart and mind for the lesson this week, take time to read and meditate on Psalm 19, Psalm 86:11, and Psalm 119:105.

Ever since Satan in the form of a serpent cast doubt on God's instructions in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 3:1–4), people have questioned the authority of God's Word. As descendants of Adam, we have inherited a sinful nature (Romans 5:12, Romans 3:23; 1 John 1:8–10), which corrupts our human reasoning, questions God's authority, and prevents us from embracing the truth.

The Bible says, "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path" (Psalm 119:105). This reminds us that we cannot move along the path of life without God's Word providing the light of truth to guide us. The Bible enables us to see the world as it truly is. Without the understanding that Scripture gives, we are lost in the dark, wondering how to accurately interpret good and evil, God and man, right and wrong. We are left with a distorted view of history, science, and society. The testimony of the Lord, however, is undistorted and sure (Psalm 19:7).

In Psalm 19, King David powerfully reveals the supremacy of Scripture. The perfection of the Word leads to conversion of the soul, the surety of the Word brings wisdom, the righteousness of the Word rejoices the heart, and the purity of the Word lights the way. The Word of God is clean, true, and righteous, producing the fear of the Lord necessary for repentance. Verse 11 summarizes the intention of the Word—that we may be warned to keep the commandments and achieve the promised reward.

Those who stand in awe of God, who are bound to Him without compromise, and who submit their minds to the teaching of Scripture are those who have a solid foundation and are able to connect the Bible to real life.

Our response to God and His Word should be to join the Psalmist in praying, "Teach me Your way, O Lord; I will walk in Your truth; unite my heart to fear Your name" (Psalm 86:11).

APOLOGETICS BACKGROUND

The proper role of apologetics is to confirm what we know of God through His Word. It is not a series of explanations attempting to prove that the Bible is true or that there is a God.

As Christians, we start with the assumption that God exists and that His Word is true. This serves as the starting point for our beliefs. This is called presuppositional thinking because we are presupposing that what God says about Himself is true.

Jesus set the example for us in this way of thinking through His life, ministry, and teaching. All of Jesus's messages presupposed that the Scriptures were true.

- He knew the Scriptures so well, learned men marveled (John 7:15).
- He quoted Scripture as historical fact, referencing some of the most-attacked accounts in the Bible, including Creation (Matthew 19:4–5), Noah and the Flood (Matthew 24:37–39), Sodom and Gomorrah (Matthew 10:15; 11:23–24), Lot and his wife (Luke 17:28–32), and Jonah and the fish (Matthew 12:39–41).
- He said the writings of Moses are more powerful than even someone rising from the dead (Luke 16:29–31).
- He defended Himself against Satan with God's Word (Matthew 4:4–10).

In the same way, we must rely on God's Word as the starting point for all of our judgments and beliefs. Others may insist that we "leave the Bible out of it" when discussing God, creation, absolute truth, morality, science, or the Bible itself. However, we cannot and must not. Christians stand on the Word of God—it is our foundation (Luke 6:47–49). Everything we believe and how we live are based on what it says.

Disregarding the Scriptures would result in disaster because our foundation would be destroyed. Our starting point is and must always be the Bible. If we give up our starting point—our foundation—we will lose the battle before it begins. We must assume that the Bible is the trustworthy starting point from which we interpret all of life.

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

We are no longer a culture that depends on God's Word. Today people doubt that the Bible's history is even true. The history of mankind shows over and over that when the Bible is rejected, then man himself becomes the measure of all things. How have we gotten to this age of man-centeredness?

Ever since the Garden of Eden, there has been a battle over the authority of the Word of God. The serpent asked Eve, "Did God really say that?" (Genesis 3:1). And the apostle Paul warns us that just as the serpent deceived Eve so our minds can be corrupted to believe lies that deny biblical truth (2 Corinthians 11:3).

The book of Genesis provides the foundation for the Bible and the gospel message of redemption. It wasn't too long ago that Genesis was taken literally and there was little controversy over its interpretation.

In the late 1700s and early 1800s, the history of Genesis came under attack by scientists who began to accept the idea of millions of years of history—rather than the thousands of years God records in His Word.

This interpretation brought compromise in the areas of biology—Darwinian evolution replacing God's creation of kinds; geology—millions of years replacing the Flood history of Genesis; anthropology—man descended from ape-like ancestors replacing God's creation of man in His own image; astronomy—the big bang replacing God's amazing account of speaking the universe into existence.

As our culture has adopted these secular views, the Bible has been disconnected from reality and consequently is becoming less and less relevant. Even many in the church have separated “church” life from “all other” life. These compromises have torn down the foundations of biblical authority and trust in God's Word. The result? Jesus gave us the answer when He asked Nicodemus, “If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?” (John 3:12).

Many no longer believe the earthly things that Jesus was referring to. And, consequently, even the heavenly things—redemption, hope, eternity with God, forgiveness, Christ's resurrection, the Trinity, and judgment—are no longer of any interest to us. It is time to get back to the foundational beliefs of the Word of God, beginning in Genesis.

BEFORE THE THRONE

Dear Lord, I know that you have given me your Word so that I would have everything I need in order to trust and obey you. Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. Help me to have great confidence in your guidance through Scripture and to pass along that confidence to those I teach. Help us to show honor to you through studying and valuing your Word. I pray that all of us will come to recognize the truthfulness of your Word, not only about the heavenly things, but about the earthly things, too.

COME ON IN

As students arrive . . .

- Distribute strips of paper to the students. Direct them to find Psalm 19 in their Bibles and mark the place. Encourage them to read the Psalm together quietly. Help any children who need assistance in knowing how to look up a passage.

Studying God's Word

Place the poster of the questioning person from the Quarter Overview display on the wall as you say: Here you are on the first day of our new Bible learning adventure—this little person represents you! Through our study over the next weeks, you'll hear the answers to some questions that you may have wondered about like: Place question bubbles from Quarter Overview display on wall around the person poster, reading them as you place them.

- Why do we have to use the Bible at all?
- Who wrote it?
- Does it have mistakes?
- How did we get the Bible?
- Lots of religions claim to have God's Word, so how do I know the Bible is true?
- Does God really even exist?
- How can I know what God is like?
- What is the Trinity?

You may leave this display on the wall for the next six weeks as you answer these questions.

There are answers to all these questions, and we'll be exploring them this quarter.

READ THE WORD

The best way to find answers is to begin with God's Word, the Bible. Let's look together at the place you marked in your Bible: Psalm 19. We'll begin reading at verse 7 and read through verse 11. Who would like to volunteer to read? Have someone read this passage.

Psalm 19:7–11

EXAMINE THE WORD

Very good. You know, it is good to read God's Word, but also great to study His Word. That is what we're going to do now. These sheets will help us to study this passage further. Distribute pencils and the Scripture sheets with Psalm 19:7–11 on them to the students.

Observe the Text

Refer to the Bible Study poster to remind your students how to dig deeper into God's Word by asking the right questions.

Now read the passage on your handout again carefully to yourself. God's Word is described in five different ways.

- ? Who can tell me what they are? Have the children circle the words on their handouts. Law, testimony, statutes, commandment, judgments.
- ? Now that we know other names for God's Word, who can tell me what else this passage tells us about God's Word? There are eight words used to explain God's Word further. At this point, you will use the set of Bible Study Mini-Posters you printed. Place the heading "God's Word is..." on the board. As students answer, place each of the appropriate words under that heading. Perfect, sure, right, pure, true, righteous, more to be desired than gold, sweeter than honey.
- ? We see that God's Word can be described in different ways. Let's look further and see how God's word changes us. Add the "God's Word changes us" poster to the board.
- ? This passage tells us five things that God's Word does for us. Read your verses again quietly. Who can give me one? Have the students answer one at a time and circle the words on their worksheet. Converting the soul, making wise the simple, rejoicing the heart, enlightening the eyes, by them your servant is warned.

We can say that God's Word changes us in these ways. But what exactly does God mean by this? Let's see!

"Converting the soul" means His Word changes our desires. Place this poster under the "God's Word changes us" poster on the board.

"Makes wise" means that we are not wise all on our own and we need God's Word for wisdom. Place this poster under the "God's Word changes us" poster on the board.

"Rejoices the heart" means His Word gives us joy that really can't be explained. Place this poster under the "God's Word changes us" poster on the board.

"Enlightens the eyes" means the Bible helps us understand—like light brightens a dark room. Place this poster under the "God's Word changes us" poster on the board.

God's Word "warns" us. It tells us the things we need to avoid—the things that displease our holy God. Place this poster under the "God's Word changes us" poster on the board.

- ? Who would like to read verse 11? Have one child read verse 11.
- ? What does the word "them" refer to? Look on your sheets and see what you circled earlier. Law, testimony, statutes, commandment, judgments.
- ? What does the statement "in keeping them" mean? Obedying them.

The Bible provides us with guidelines for how to obey God's Word. One more question from our text. What happens when we obey God's Word? Look at verse 11. Who can tell me? There is great reward. Add both mini-posters "Obeying God's Word gives us" and "Great Reward" on the board.

Discover the Truth

Now that we have seen what the passage says, let's talk about the main idea—God's Word is perfect! Let's read this together. Point to the list under the mini-poster heading "God's Word is..." Have the children read the words together.

God's Word also changes us, making us wiser and happier from the inside out. Let's read this together. Point to the list under "God's Word changes us." Have the children read this list together.

And obeying God brings great reward. Point to the words "Great Reward."

Sometimes we forget these wonderful truths about God's Word and we think we can figure everything out on our own. But we really are not wise enough for that. We need to rely on God and His Word to help us with everything in our life.

We don't know enough to make wise choices on our own. But God knows all things. We say He is omniscient. This means He knows everything—past, present, and future. This is what we call an attribute of God.

OMNISCIENT

- ? There are many attributes of God and we will be talking about them throughout the year. Can you find the attribute omniscient on this poster? Point to the Attributes of God poster and have the children read the definition together.

God knows all things. And He has given us His Word so we can know Him better. We need the truth of God's Word to help us understand the world we live in. We cannot rely on our own wisdom—it just isn't good enough.

- ? So, when we have a question, where should we look for the answer? The Bible, God's Word.

That's right! We call this "putting on biblical glasses." In other words, we begin to answer our question by looking in God's Word to see what it says. Go to the Biblical Glasses poster as you discuss this concept.

Putting on biblical glasses helps us to understand the world we live in. When we believe what God tells us in the Bible, we can understand so many things much more easily. We can finally see clearly when we use God's Word. Like we just learned from Psalm 19—God's Word "enlightens our eyes."

Now listen as I read a short story about two friends who asked the same question but came to very different answers.

Two friends lay in the grass listening to the birds sing, watching them soar, and wondering how these beautiful creatures came into being. Neither of the friends was born when the first birds appeared on the earth.

To find the answer, the wise friend began by looking to God's Word, where he read that God spoke and created birds each according to their kind on the fifth day of Creation. He concluded that the beautiful birds were designed by God on that day.

The foolish friend ignored the Bible and read a book written by another person. Someone who had lived long after Creation—who was not there when the first birds appeared on the earth. From his reading he concluded that birds first appeared over a million years ago and that they had evolved from dinosaurs into birds. Although they both looked at the same birds, they came to very different conclusions.

? Where did each friend look for the answer to the question? One looked in the Bible and one looked in a different book.

The two friends had what we call different starting points. One began by using his "biblical glasses." He believed that God would know the answer. After all, God is omniscient and He was there at Creation. This friend had learned what God's Word says in Psalm 19.

? Will someone read verses 7 and 8 again? Have someone read those verses from the handout.

? What does it say about the testimony of the Lord? It is sure.

? What does it say about the statutes of the Lord? They are right.

These friends saw the very same things but had different starting points. The truth comes from God's Word—it is sure and right. We need to start there when we want answers to our questions.

Psalm 19 Study Review

MATERIALS

- ☐ Psalm 19 mini-posters from the wall
- ☐ Poster putty or tape

INSTRUCTIONS

Leave the main headings—"God's Word is," "God's Word changes us," "Obeying God's Word gives us"—on the board. Remove the mini-posters from under the headings and distribute them in random order to students. Call on the children one at a time to put the posters you have given them back under the appropriate headings.

Here are the mini-posters we just used to study Psalm 19. I've mixed them up and I'd like you to put them back under the proper heading when I call on you. There are 14 mini-posters to distribute to the students. If you have more students than mini-posters, pair some of the students to work as a team. Call on the children to replace the mini-posters. After they have returned all of the posters to their proper locations, have the class read the entire Scripture handout again together.

CONNECT TO THE TRUTH

Now we should know how to answer the question, "Why do we have to use the Bible at all?" God makes it clear that His Word is very special and we need it for all of our questions. Psalm 19 is a reminder of just how perfect God's Word is.

Today we have read and studied God's Word, and over the next several weeks we will be memorizing Psalm 19:7–9.

God's Word Is True

MATERIALS

- ☐ Student Take Home Sheets with the words to the poem (or the poem written on the board)

INSTRUCTIONS

Have the children recite the poem together.

We have a poem that will help us remember what we talked about today—that God's Word is true! Let's say it together. You may want to recite this in different ways: girls say it and then boys, who can say it loudest, who can say it quietest, who can say it slowest, who can say it fastest, etc.

God's Word Is True

God's Word is true, I know it!
I want my life to show it.

God speaks the truth to all mankind,
A better source you cannot find.
God's Word is true, I KNOW IT!

Scripture, Bible, or God's Word,
Titles that you all have heard,
Breathed out by God who never lied,
Giving us a faithful guide.
God's Word is true, I KNOW IT!

CONNECT TO THE TRUTH

This poem is on your Student Take Home Sheet today. Take it home and teach it to your friends, your parents, and your family. It will remind you (and them) that God's Word is true and that it should be your starting point to answer all of your questions.

Applying God's Word

WHAT YOU HEARD IN THE WORD

The Bible is the starting point from which we make decisions. We need to learn to use it to guide our every thought. Psalm 19 tells us that God's Word is perfect, sure, right, pure, true, righteous, more to be desired than gold, and sweeter than honey! It is like no other book ever written.

God's Word can also change us. It changes our soul, it makes us wise, it brings joy to the heart, and it allows us to see more clearly—like light in the darkness. Refer to your wall display as you recap these important points.

We might think we know all the answers, but really we don't know anything compared to God. God is the only one who is omniscient—He knows everything! But He has left us with a guidebook—the Bible—to help us understand better. If we refuse to use His Word to guide us we will never see things clearly. We need to look at all of life through biblical glasses, using the Bible as our foundation in everything. Display the Lesson Theme Poster.

➤ Each lesson has a Lesson Theme poster which should be posted in the classroom to highlight the main point. These will be used for review in future lessons.

GOD'S WORD IN THE REAL WORLD

This week you will be faced with many decisions, from how to treat your family, to what to watch on television, to what you ought to believe. You will be tempted to think that you know what is best for you.

? But where can you find the perfect truth? The Bible.

To know what God says, you will have to read the Bible. Each week you'll get a Student Take Home Sheet. It has a section called Read the Word that will encourage you to get into God's Word each day. Pass out the Student Take Home Sheet. Explain the daily Bible reading guide.

The Student Take Home Sheet also has our memory verse inside under Learn the Word. We will begin memorizing the verse next week. But I think you should be pretty familiar with it after today's lesson. Let's read it together from the poster. Refer to the Memory Verse poster—Psalm 19:7–11. Read it together several times and begin to memorize it together if you have time.

Get familiar with it, read it every day during the week, and we'll discover more about it next week.

➤ Remind the children to practice the memory verse this week.

MEMORY VERSE

Psalm 19:7-9

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul;
the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple;
the statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes;
the fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever;
the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

GROUP PRAYER TIME

Be sure to pray with your class before you dismiss them.

- Thank God for giving us His perfect Word which can make us wise.
- Ask God for the faith to believe what His Word tells us and for the wisdom to defend it.
