John 15:13 talks of love, a love so great that one would lay down his life for others. Our Lord Jesus laid down His life for us to set us free. 1 Peter reminds us, as His disciples, that Jesus Christ suffered for us, and we are called that we might follow in His steps.

1. How did John Harper lay down his life for those that would perish on the Titanic?
2. In what way did Jessie follow in the steps of her Lord while she was on the Carpathia?
3. While Jessie and Annie were on the rescue ship, how did they show love to others, even in their grief?

4. Does laying down our lives for others always involve physical death?
5. In what ways can we lay down our lives for others in our day-to-day lives?
6. Are we willing to give up our time and our energy to embrace others in need? If called, are we willing to give up our very lives?

In 2 Timothy 4:6–8 Paul talked about being poured out as a offering, fighting the fight, running the race, and finishing the course—and he had kept the faith. There would be a crown of righteousness waiting to be given to him by his Lord when he had finished.

7. In those final days, how did John Harper live out his life?
8. On whom were John Harper's eyes focused?

9. How had the Lord prepared John Harper for that fateful night on the Titanic?
10. How do we live our lives when things all around us are falling apart?
11. As followers of the Lord Jesus, how should we view death?
12. As Christians, how do we face that death?
