A is for Ark

Ark is a name for a great big boat.
It had to be strong so it could float
To survive many months during a global Flood,
'Cause man's rebellion God had to judge.

B is for Back

Back in a garden is when it began,
When the saddest day was caused by a man.
Adam was told, "Don't eat from this tree."
God made it clear, "You must obey Me."

C is for Called

Called the saddest day in world history,
Adam disobeyed God and ate from that tree.
Now everything changed – dirt, animals, and man.
Sin entered the world; the rebellion began.

D is for Dreadful

Dreadful things happened – when Cain killed his brother,
Violent things, oh, one after another.
The effects of sin were seen everywhere,
But sadly, so many just didn't even care.

E is for Earth

Earth, moon, and stars – the whole universe
Was suffering the effects of an awful Curse.
Disease, death, and suffering, and lots of pain,
Nothing would ever be quite just the same.

F is for Fruitful

“Be fruitful and multiply,” the first two were told.
They probably had fifty by the time they were old.
Their children had children and then there were more,
Hundreds of years later, there were people galore.

G is for Grave

Grave is the situation many years after creation.
At the time of Noah lived a wicked generation.
All but eight people they jeered and they scoffed;
They didn't love God, all they did was just mock.

H is for Hear

Hear that great task that God said to do:
Build a great boat – your family's the crew.
Noah obeyed, he loved God so much,
He didn't complain or make any fuss.
