

TRUTH OR ERROR

NAME

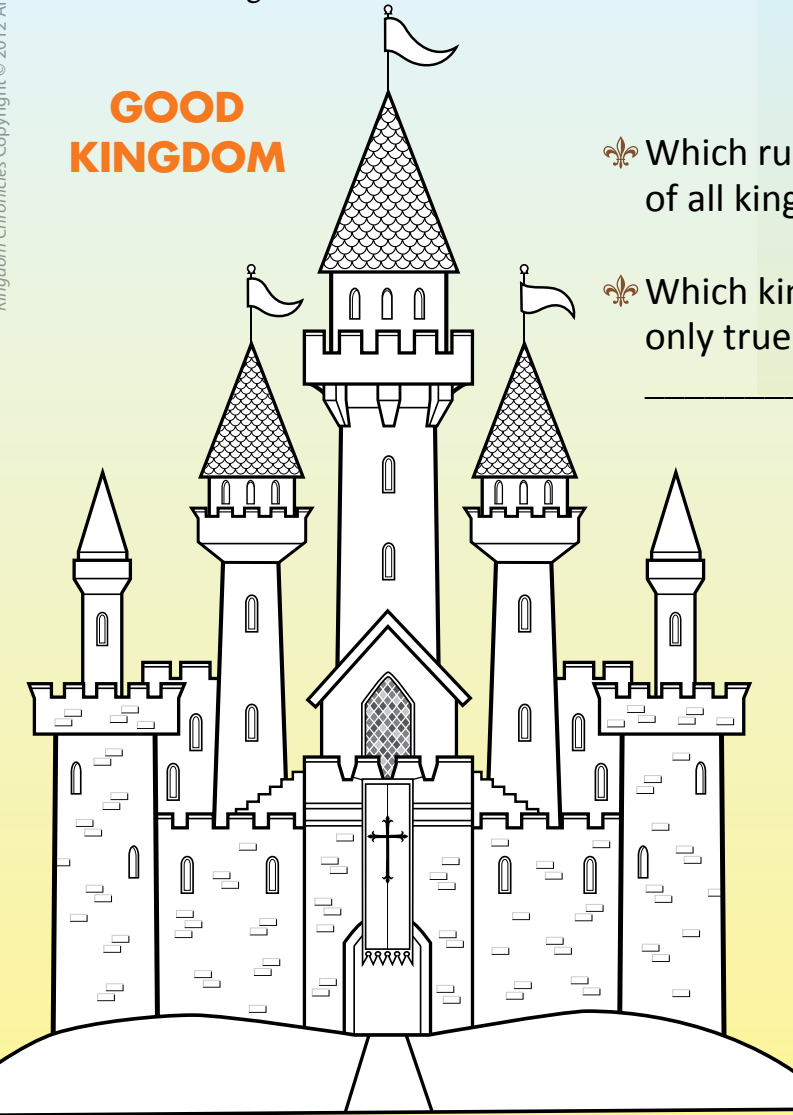

NAME

Hear ye! Hear ye! Attention all knights and fair maidens! We're in a battle for truth—are you ready? Do you have all your armor on?

DIRECTIONS: The battle is between two kingdoms—the good kingdom and the bad kingdom. Color the castles below. Under each castle, write the name of the ruler of each kingdom.

GOOD KINGDOM

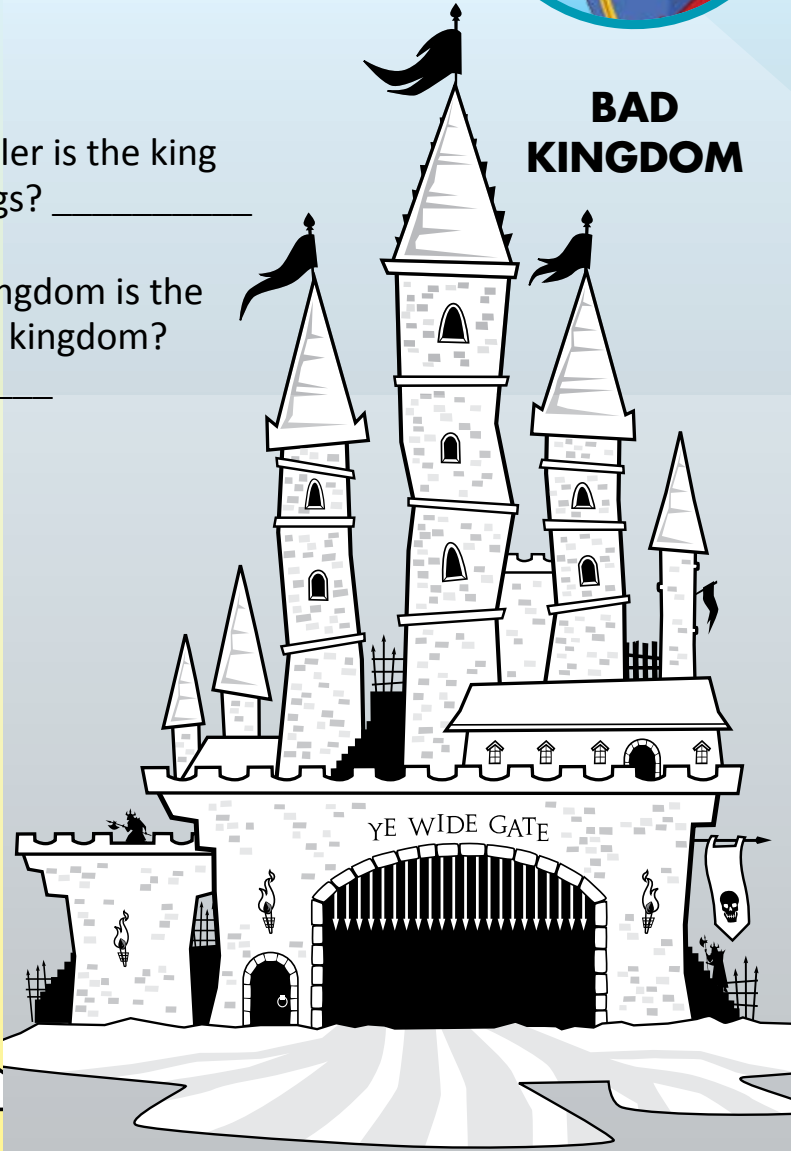

Which ruler is the king of all kings? _____

Which kingdom is the only true kingdom?

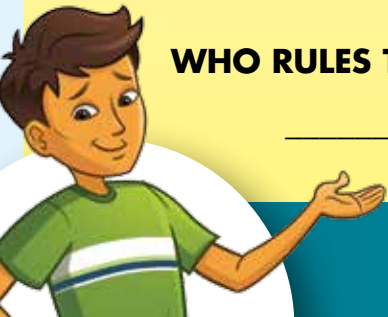

WHO RULES THIS KINGDOM?

BAD KINGDOM

WHO RULES THIS KINGDOM?

Of two, only one is true!

Victory Verse

Today's Verse

Put on the whole
armor of God.

Ephesians 6:10–11

Tomorrow's Verse

Fasten on the belt of truth.

Ephesians 6:14, ESV

✿ CHALLENGE: Practice the verse several times, pretending to put on the armor as you practice saying it.

Go and Do

- 1 Praise God for all the good things you can think of because every good thing is given to us by the ruler of the good kingdom—God.
- 2 Play a game of opposites that shows the difference between the two kingdoms. A grown-up says one, then the child says the opposite. Examples: God, Satan; good, bad; laughing, crying; tells the truth, lies; kind, mean; for us, against us; light, dark.
- 3 Draw a picture of a good castle and a bad castle. Put yourself in front of the one you want to belong to.

Ask yourself this question:
Which kingdom do I want to be a citizen of?
