EXPEDITION ARK Noah's Journey of Faith

PREFLOOD MAP

Now all the writers of barbarian histories make mention of this flood, and of this ark; among whom is Berosus the Chaldean. For when he is describing the circumstances of the flood, he goes on thus: "It is said there is still some part of this ship in Armenia, at the mountain of the Cordyaeans; and that some people carry off pieces of the bitumen, which they take away, and use chiefly as amulets for the averting of mischiefs." Hieronymus the Egyptian also, who wrote the Phoenician Antiquities, and Mnaseas, and a great many more, make mention of the same.

-ANTIQUITIES OF THE JEWS BOOK 1, CHAPTER 3. BY FLAVIUS JOSEPHUS

. . Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and noah walked with God. ——Genesis 6:9

Noah was very uneasy at what they did; and being displeased at their conduct, persuaded them to change their dispositions and their acts for the better: but seeing they did not yield to him, but were slaves to their wicked pleasures, he was afraid they would kill him, together with his wife and children, and those they had married; so he departed out of that land.

-ANTIQUITIES OF THE JEWS BOOK 1, CHAPTER 3

The words spoken by Lamech, Noah's father, may indicate that he worked hard at farming the land. Thus, Noah may have learned how to plant crops and care for animals at an early age. The name Noah means "rest" and his father hoped that he would bring rest from their hard work because of the curse on the ground. Noah was born a little more than a thousand years after God created everything, and the enormous task of building the Ark and caring for the animals likely required a variety of skills, such as growing crops, animal husbandry, woodworking, metalworking, and leadership.

Ebstorfer World Map: Originally dated to the 13th century and measuring almost 12 feet square, the Ebstorfer Map was discovered in 1843 and destroyed during World War II. The image of the Ark on the mountains includes the dove returning.
