SPECIAL ILLUSTRATED SERIES

- 24 The Wonders of the Whole
What strikes you about creation? Its color? Its design? There's no end to the wonders!
- Carbon: The Building Blocks of Life
 - DNA: The Language of Life
 - Symbiosis: The Cooperation of Life
- 32 The Creator Clearly Seen
According to Romans 1:18–21, all creation cries out the existence and goodness of God so that all humans are “without excuse.”
- 38 Little Green Machines
Reminders about the loving Creator are all around us, even in the things we take most for granted, like plants.
- 42 The Matrix—Life's Support System
Without bacteria, our bodies could not get the treasures they need. Even these unseen organisms display the provision of the Creator.
- 56 Mystifying Mosaics
From platypuses to pandas, the marvelous tapestry of life gives testimony to the all-wise Creator.
- 60 The Mystery of Life
More marvelous than all other wonders, yet so commonplace, is the thing known as life. What more obvious evidence can you find for the Creator?
- 64 Do All Creationists Go to Heaven?
God created all things, not only so people would be sure the Creator exists, but also so people would turn to Him as their Savior. His salvation is the greatest wonder of all.
- 66 Best Seat in the House
Why do creationists do science? They get a front-row seat in viewing the glories of God.

SEMI-TECHNICAL SECTION

- 70 Words Are Us  Semi-technical
Even within the womb, humans display a language capacity that is unique in creation. Language seems to be at the root of everything in the universe. (John Oller, Jr., PhD)
- 76 The Seeing Eye  Semi-technical
Even Darwin said that to believe that the eye could be explained through natural selection seems absurd. (David Menton, PhD)
- 80 Transcontinental Rock Layers  Semi-technical Sedimentary layers sometimes cover continents and stretch beyond continents. A catastrophic, global Flood is the only viable explanation. (Andrew Snelling, PhD)
