EXPLORATION JOURNAL

Name:

Esther

Country:

Haiti

Challenge:

Disaster

About:

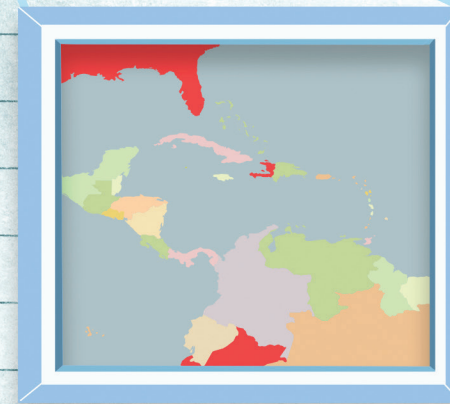

Haiti is a little island in the Caribbean.

In 2010, Haiti experienced a big earthquake. A lot of homes and buildings were destroyed in the earthquake, and many people were left without food and shelter. Many families, including Esther's, have to live in a tent because they lost their homes in the disaster. Esther's father also died in the earthquake.

Prayer

Requests:

Pray for kids like Esther who have lost their family members and homes in natural disasters. Pray that the people in the local church would share about the amazing love of God with the people of Haiti.

When Dmitry is scared about the war in Ukraine,
what would you want him to remember about God?

Why do you think Jesus would want us to care for refugees (people who had to leave their homes because of war and violence)?

Name:

Dmitry

Country:

Ukraine

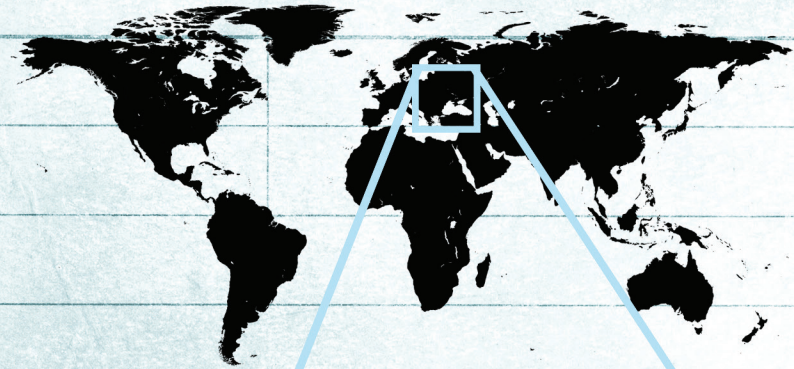

Challenge:

Refugee

About:

Dmitry and his family were forced out of their home because of a war that broke out in Ukraine. Now, Dmitry's dad cannot find work. In the new place that they are living, the heater is broken and the winters are very cold. Dmitry's family does not have enough money to buy food and fix their heater.

Prayer
Requests:

Pray for kids like Dmitry who have been forced out of their homes and have become refugees. Pray that the local church would be strengthened to share the hope of Jesus with refugees in Ukraine and around the world.

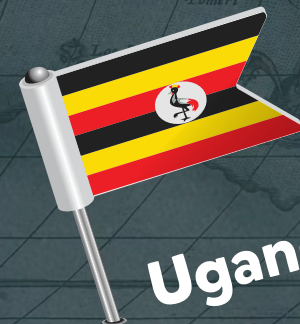

How would you encourage Tombe when he is sad that he cannot go to school?

What does it mean to sacrifice something to help others?

Uganda

Name:

Tombe

Country:

Uganda

Challenge:

Extreme Poverty

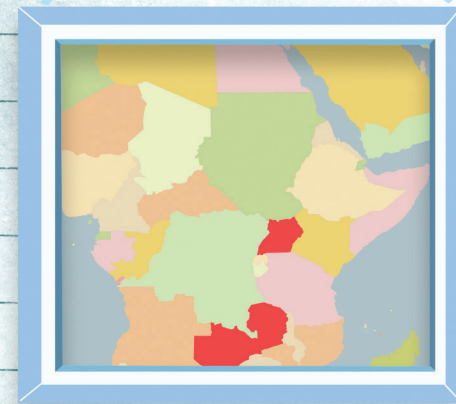

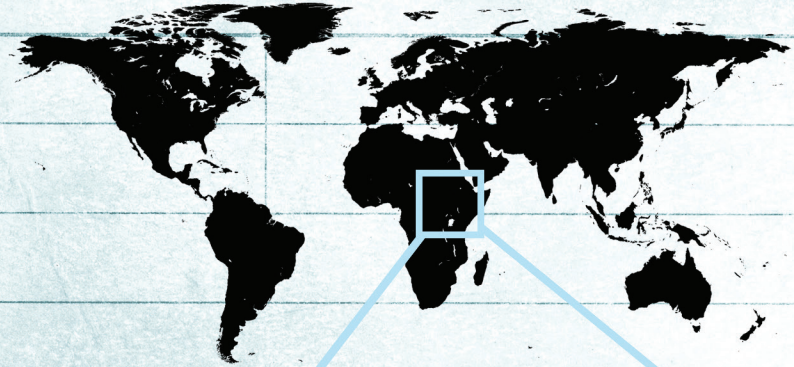

About:

Uganda is a country that has a lot of poverty. Tombe's dad left his family, and his mom has to work two jobs to be able to feed her children. While Tombe's mom is at work, he has to take care of his siblings, which means that he can no longer go to school.

Prayer
Requests:

Pray for kids like Tombe whose lives are changed forever by extreme poverty. Pray that God would give local churches the resources to help families in poverty. Pray that families in poverty would learn about the love of God that can satisfy all of their needs.

What would you want Isra to remember about God
when she is feeling alone and scared?

How does Jesus want us to love the poor?

EXPLORATION JOURNAL

Name:

Isra

Country:

Thailand

Challenge:

Generational Poverty

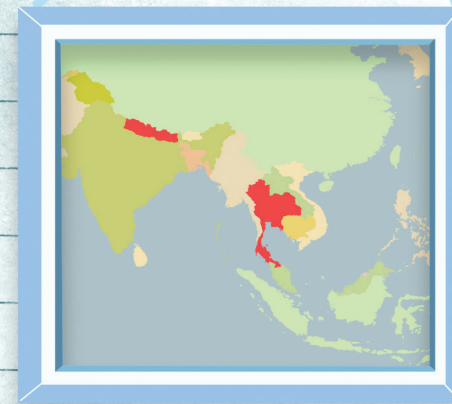

About:

Isra and her parents live in poverty. So did her grandparents and great-grandparents. This is called generational poverty. To help her family have money for food, Isra was sent away to sell candy. The person she works for treats her poorly and she is scared being so far away from home.

Prayer
Requests:

Pray for kids like Isra who are sent far away from their homes to work so that their families can have enough money to buy food. Pray that the good news of Jesus would transform and comfort the lives of children living in generational poverty.

United States

Name:

Jeremy

Country:

United States

Challenge: Invisible Poor

About:

Jeremy lives in Chicago, a city in the United States. His dad lost his job and his family had to move to a small apartment. Jeremy's family cannot afford to pay for their electricity and water bills. A lot of the time, they don't have power in their apartment.

Prayer

Requests:

Pray for kids in your neighborhood, school, or church who may be living in poverty. Pray that local church volunteers would love the poor by sharing the good news of Jesus with them.
